Dear praying friends,

Last weekend our team hosted a music writing workshop for Bayash Roma (pictured right). Five adults and two children attended and they all heard the gospel. One of them came to know Christ as Savior and said that she is now free from spiritual darkness. During the workshop those in attendance translated a prayer and two UNA (children's Bible club) songs into Bayash. This is a highly significant step as we seek to network and to introduce the children's Bible club, literacy and Bible translation among the Hungarian Ardelean Bayash.

Before this, there had been several discouragements for our teammates who organized and led this workshop in the form of having car problems, breakdowns of their hot water heater and washing machine, a teammate having lost her pocketbook with important documents, as well as several last minute cancelations by people who were supposed to attend the workshop. So it was very encouraging to see such a successful outcome. Thank you for praying.

We are so excited about this. Not only is it very exciting anytime someone comes to Christ, but it "just so happens" that she is a trained Bayash language teacher. This is such a great answer to prayer since we have been praying for someone to teach me Hungarian Ardelean Bayash and to begin work on editing and testing the Gospel of Mark draft, adapting the Slavic Ardelean Bayash text for Hungary. We are praying and wondering if she might be one who can do this. There are challenges ahead. For example, there is no word for "thank you" in Hungarian Ardelean Bayash! Also, it is difficult to know how to translate more complicated phrases, such as, "Hallowed be Your name" in Matthew 6:9. So this potential language teacher and Bible translator, as a believer who has the Spirit, could prove key for the translation work.

Timothy (23) has been working diligently as a night stocker at Wal-Mart for a year and a half. He has been faithful at his job, but the schedule of working 11 p.m. to 8 a.m. has made it very difficult to participate in daytime activities like church, social outings, etc. We had asked for prayer for a daytime job and preferably a ministry position. He took a step of faith by giving his two-weeks' notice at Wal-Mart and applying for a summer internship to work at City Union Mission for the summer, a ministry he greatly enjoyed doing a previous summer. He ended up getting that job, which begins the day after his Wal-Mart job ends. We are excited for him. And we ask you to pray for daytime work/ministry/school in the Fall after this internship ends.

We look forward to seeing some of you when we are in Kansas City June 3-17 for Elizabeth's wedding (June 14). She is officially a senior now at Calvary Bible College, having finished her junior year. She and Stephen are working hard at janitorial jobs and God has provided housing for them in a good location in Kansas City.

I just finished my second semester of Hungarian classes. I'm thankful for grace and stamina in studying Hungarian. After returning to Budapest after Elizabeth's wedding, I hope to turn my focus toward learning the Bayash dialects.

Most of you have heard of the horrific flooding in Croatia, Bosnia and Serbia. They evacuated all the women and children from the large Roma village in Slavonski Brod, Croatia, where our teammates work. Thankfully, the river never crested and flooded that town and now our team has been able to minister to the people and hold Bible and English clubs with the children in the town and at the village. Please pray with us for those in Bosnia and Serbia, especially for the believers ministering there.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support for the ministry of Bible translation for the Roma of Hungary, Croatia and Serbia.

Gratefully,
Todd, Pamala, Matthew, Kirsten, Daniel and Ariela Price
